Section 2-04. Vacancies.

Vacancies in the Board of Directors caused by any reason other than the removal of a Director by a vote of the members, shall be filled by vote of the majority of the remaining Board Members, even though they may constitute less than a quorum; each person so elected shall hold office until his successor is elected at the next annual meeting of Association members.

Section 2-05. Removal of Board Members.

At any regular or special meeting duly called, any one or more members of the Board of Directors may be removed with or without cause by a majority of voting Association members, and a successor may then and there be elected to fill the vacancy so created. Any such notice shall state the time, place, and purpose of the meeting.

Section 2-09. Waiver of Notice

Any Board Member may at any time waive notice of any meeting of the Board of Directors in writing, and any such written waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of the notice required herein. Attendance by any Board Member of any meeting of the Board shall constitute a waiver by him of notice of the time and place thereof. Section 2-10. Quorum of Board of Directors.

At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the members thereof shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the votes of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the decision of the Board of Directors. Section 2-13. Liability of Board Directors.

The members of the Board of Directors shall not be liable to the Association for any mistake of judgment, negligence, or otherwise except for their own individual willful misconduct or bad faith. The Association shall indemnify and hold harmless each of the members of the Board of Directors against all contractual liabilities to others arising out of contracts made by the Board of Directors on behalf of the Association unless any such contract shall have been made in bad faith or contrary to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, the Declaration or of these By-Laws. It is intended that the members of the Board of Directors shall have no personal liability with respect to any contract made by them on behalf of the Association. Every agreement made by the Board of Directors on behalf of the Association shall provide that the members of the Board of Directors are acting only as agents for the Association and shall have no personal liability thereunder.

Section 3-05. Quorum; Majority Voting.

At all meetings of the Association, members holding in the aggregate in excess of fifty percent (50%) in voting interests, shall constitute a quorum for transaction of business. The salaries, if any, of all officers shall be set by the Board of Directors, in their discretion, and the fact that any officer is a member of the Board of Directors shall not preclude him from receiving his salary, if any, or from voting on any resolution providing for the same.

ARTICLE FIVE
OPERATION OF PROPERTY

Section 5-01. Determining Common Charges.

Except as otherwise provided herein, all costs and expenses in connection with the repair, maintenance, replacement, restoration and operation of any alteration, addition or improvement to, common elements ("common expenses") shall be determined by the Board of Directors and shall be borne by the Association members. The Board of Directors shall from time to time, and at least annually, prepare a budget for the Association which budget shall include projections of common expenses, common revenues (from sources other than assessments of lot owners), the amount of common charges required to meet the excess of the former over the latter, and an allocation and assessment of such common charges against lot owners as provided in the Declaration. As used in these By-Laws, the term "common expenses" or "common charges" shall mean expenses or charges for which lot owners are proportionately liable, and shall include, but shall not be limited to the following:

- A. All expenses of administration, maintenance, repair and replacement of the common elements;
- B. Insurance premiums on all policies of insurance obtained by the Board of Directors, pursuant to Section 5-10 of this Article;

Section 5-02. Collection of Assessments.

The Board of Directors shall assess common charges against the lot owners from time to time, and at least annually, and shall advise each lot owner in writing of the amount of common charges payable by him. If any common charges remain unpaid for more than ten (10) days from the date due, the Board of Directors shall take prompt action to collect the same and impose a late charge as the Board of Directors deems reasonable, not to exceed ten percent (10%) of the amount of such overdue assessment or installment thereof, provided such late charges are equitable and uniformly applied.

Section 5-03. Obligation to Pay Common Charges.

All lot owners are obligated to pay common charges assessed by the Board of Directors at such times as the Board may determine. No lot owner may exempt himself from liability for any assessment for common charges by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the common elements or by abandonment of his lot. In all voluntary conveyances of lots, the grantee shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid assessments against the latter for his share of common expenses up to the time of the grant or conveyance, without prejudice to the grantee's right to recover against the grantor any amounts paid by the grantee. However, any such grantee shall be entitled to a statement from the Board of Directors, or the Managing Agent or the Manager, setting forth the amount of unpaid assessments. In such event, the grantee shall not be liable for any amount in excess of the amount set forth in such statement. A mortgagee or other purchaser of a lot at a foreclosure sale, shall not be liable for non-payment of any common charges assessed prior to the date of the foreclosure sale and such lot shall not be subject to a lien for non-payment of such charges.

Section 5-04. Default in Payment of Common Charges.

In the event of default by any lot owner in paying the common charges assessed against his lot by the Board of Directors, such lot owner shall be obligated to pay the maximum legal interest rate permissible by law (or such lower interest rate as may be fixed by the Board of Directors), on such common charges from the due date thereof, together with all expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Board of Directors in any proceeding brought to collect such common charges, or to foreclose a lien for non-payment thereof.

Section 5-05. Foreclosure of Liens for Unpaid Common Charges.

The Board of Directors have the right and duty to attempt to recover unpaid common charges, together with interest thereon, and expenses of the proceeding, including reasonable attorney's fees, (1) in an action to recover a money judgment brought against any lot owner in default on his obligation to pay the common charges, or (2) by foreclosure of the lien, on any lot in respect to which such default has occurred. The suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid common charges shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien, securing the same, and foreclosure shall be maintainable notwithstanding the pendency of a suit to recover a money judgment. In any such foreclosure, the lot owner shall be required to pay reasonable rental for the lot for any period prior to sale, and the Board of Directors, as Plaintiff in such a foreclosure, shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same.

Section 5-06. Common Surplus.

The Association shall not be obligated in any calendar year to spend all sums collected in such year by way of maintenance assessments or otherwise and may carry forward as surplus any balance remaining. The Association shall not be obligated to apply any such surpluses towards the reduction of the amount of the maintenance assessment in the succeeding year but may carry forward from year to year such surpluses as the Board of Directors in its absolute discretion may determine to be desirable for the greater financial security and effectuation of the purposes of the Association.

Section 5-07. Maintenance and Repair

All maintenance and repairs and the responsibility therefore shall be in accordance with the provision of Articles Seven of the Declaration, which provisions shall become a part of these By-laws as if fully set forth herein.

Section 5-08. Uses of Lots.

In order to provide for a more congenial occupancy of the common area and for the protection of the values of the lots, the use of the common area shall be restricted to and shall be in accordance with the following provisions:

- A. Lots shall be used for residential purposes only.
- B. Common elements may be used only for the furnishing of the services, the facilities and the other uses for which they are reasonably suited.
- C. No nuisance shall be allowed on the common area, nor shall any use or practice be allowed which is a source of annoyance to owners or occupants of the lots or which interferes with the peaceful possession or proper use of the common area by its owners or occupants.
